The Secretary of the Society (WM. S. BARCLAY,) will be ready to receive entries for two weeks previous to the Fair, and would earnestly request all who can, to make application before the Fair, as it will facilitate arrangements that may be made for their accommodation.

—In presenting the foregoing List of Premiums, the Board beg leave to call attention to the fact that it has undergone a thorough revision and correction; and they would invite an attentive and careful perusal, feeling that in variety, and extent (if not in aggregate amount of premiums offered) it is not surpassed by that of any other County Society in our State.—Taking these facts into consideration, the Board would cordially invite all to compete, hoping that we may have an Exhibition which will prove alike creditable to our association and to the agricultural interests of our County.

WM. S. BARCLAY,
July 1st, 1866. Secretary.

THE crops in southern Illinois are said to be very fine. The quality of wheat is much superior to last year's crop. Potatoes and corn promise finely, while the peach and apple trees are bending with their weight of fruit.

Southern Union Convention.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The following is a call for a convention of Southern Unionists, to be held at Independence Hall, in the city of Philadelphia, on the first Monday of September, '66:

To the loyal Unionists of the South:

The great issue is upon us. The majority in Congress, and its supporters, firmly declare that the rights of the citizens enumerated in the Constitution and established by the supreme law, must be maintained inviolate.—Rebels and rebel sympathizers assert that the rights of the citizens must belong to the States alone, and under such regulations as the respective States choose voluntarily to prescribe. We have seen this doctrine of State Sovereignty carried out in its practical results, until all authority in Congress was denied, the Union temporarily destroyed, the constitutional rights of the citizens of the South nearly annihilated, and the land desolated by civil war. The time has come when the structure of the State governments must be laid on Constitutional principles, or the despotism grown up under an atrocious leadership be permitted to remain. We know of no other plan than that Congress, under its Constitutional power, shall now exercise its authority to establish the principle whereby protection is made co-extensive with citizenship.—We maintain that no State, either by its organic law, or legislation, can make transgression on the rights of the citizen legitimate. We demand and ask you to concur in demanding protection to every citizen of the great Republic on the basis of equality before the law, and further that no State Government should be recognized as legitimate under the Constitution in so far as it does not by its organic law make impartial protection full and complete; under the doctrine of State sovereignty, with rebels in the foreground controlling Southern legislatures, and embittered by disappointment in their schemes to destroy the Union, there will be no safety for the loyal element of the South.

Our reliance for protection is now on Congress, and the great Union party that has stood and is standing by the nationality, by the constitutional rights of the citizen, and by the beneficent principles of free government. For the purpose of bringing the loyal Unionists of the South into conjunctive action with the true friends of republican government of the North, we invite you to send delegates in goodly numbers from all the Southern States, including the States of Missouri, Kentucky, West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware, to meet at Independence Hall, in the city of Philadelphia, on the first Monday of September next. It is proposed that we should meet at that time to recommend measures for the establishment of such a Government in the South as accords with and protects the rights of all citizens. We trust the call will be responded to by numerous delegations of such as represent the true loyalty of the South, and that kind of Government which gives full protection to all the rights of the citizens and such as our fathers intended and we claim as our birth-right. Either the lovers of constitutional liberty must rule the nation, or rebels and their sympathizers be permitted to misrule it. Shall loyalty or disloyalty have the keeping of the destinies of the nation? Let the responses to this call which is now in circulation for signatures, and is being numerously signed, answer.

Notice is given that gentlemen at a distance can have their names attached to it by sending a request, by letter, directed to Dr. W. Bingham, Washington, D. C.

GENERAL GRANT is of the opinion, it is stated, that there should be at least one full regiment of cavalry in each Southern State, in order to prevent outrages and to give proper protection to citizens, white and black.

That National Convention.

Most of the readers of this paper, we presume, know that Messrs. Randall, Cowan, Doolittle, and two or three others who still claim to be Union men, have published a call for a National Convention, to be held at Philadelphia, on the 14th of August. It is generally understood that this call is issued in pursuance of the wishes of President Johnson, and that the influence of his administration will be brought to bear upon making it a success. The Democratic Senators and Representatives in Congress have almost unitedly endorsed this movement, and the "coppery" element will therefore preponderate largely in the contemplated gathering.

Viewing this project from almost every conceivable stand point, we can come to no other conclusion than that it is the deliberate design of President Johnson, Cowan, Doolittle & Co., to make an effort to break up the Union Republican party; and against an attempt of this kind every loyal man in the country should sturdily set his face. The Union party as at present organized, was the first and only one that raised its arm in defence of an imperiled nation; it carried the country successfully through a bloody four years' war; and whatever of honor or fame is now attached to that country, either at home or abroad, is wholly due to the Union party, whose devotion to principle, undying patriotism, and unfaltering courage, brought us victory, peace, and a character every where that is gainsayed by none. To abandon its organization, then, would be criminally foolish, and the idea of doing so should not be entertained by any loyal one.

The past wooing and recent marriage of the Copperhead and Johnson clubs in Washington city, lead to the belief that the intention now is to drop the name of Democrat entirely—abandon that organization—and at the Philadelphia convention adopt that of the "National Union Party." By this arrangement, President Johnson will supply the name, while Vallandigham, Wood, Rogers & Co. will furnish the men to compose the new organization, if such it can be called.—The consummation of this scheme, then, will bring the President in a new character before the people.—Heretofore he has been regarded a loyal man, and his associates were loyal people. In his new role, he can be reminded of the character of his new friends, without imputing direct disloyalty to him. They will constitute every man that bore arms against the Union during the war, every man that sympathized with treason, every man that shrieked "tyranny" at all efforts to put the rebellion down, every "Son of Liberty" that tried to incite resistance to drafts, every man that laughed when calamities befel our arms, every man that wept when rebel armies were pushed to the wall, every bounty jumper, every deserter, and every coward who sneaked away from a draft. If the President now loves and prefers such company as this, we presume he will have it; but he will find, and that, too, perhaps, to his mortification, that an overwhelming majority of the voters of the United States neither desire to be mustered into that character of service nor to trait with that class of men.

THE war between Prussia, Italy and Austria appears to be conducted with a vast amount of energy. So far the Prussians have the better of it.

The Two Calls.

When delegates were authorized to be selected in this county to attend the Soldiers' Convention at Pittsburg, on the 5th of June, the following call was issued to the public:

SOLDIERS, ATTENTION!

"There will be a meeting of the soldiers of Beaver county, at the Court House, in Beaver, Pa., on Thursday evening, the 31st, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Convention that meets in Pittsburg on the 5th of June. A full attendance is desired."

It will be seen from the wording of this call, that ALL of the soldiers of Beaver county were invited to attend, and participate in the selection of delegates. The soldiers were trusted and allowed to follow the bent of their own inclinations. No effort was made to pack either the meeting held at the Court House or the Convention at Pittsburgh and under the terms of the call, if a majority of the "true soldiers" of Beaver county had been in favor of Clymer for Governor, they could have selected delegates favorable to him, and had them vote for that candidate in the Pittsburg convention. But the truth is there are but few Clymer soldiers in the county; and that few knowing that they comprised but a "corporal's guard," chose to stay away from the meeting entirely. But that they received the same cordial invitation to attend as all other soldiers did, is evident from the terms of the call, as above published. Now look at the broad and magnanimous (?) call for a soldiers' meeting, published in the Local of last week. It reads thus.:

"The honorably discharged soldiers of Beaver county, who endorse the Administration of President Johnson—who believe that our late war was waged for the purpose of maintaining the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union, and not for the purpose of their overthrow—and who are in favor of the election of Hiester Clymer for Governor of Pennsylvania, are requested to meet in Convention at the Court House, in the town of Beaver, on Wednesday, July 25th, 1866, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting Seven Delegates to represent them in the Johnson-Clymer State Convention, to be held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 1st day of August next."

None but Clymer soldiers are then invited to attend at the Court House on the 25th of July. In view of this fact, we have very little doubt but what Clymer delegates will be selected; and if the calls throughout the State are similar to this one, we suppose Clymer will hardly fail to be endorsed by the Harrisburg convention on the 1st of August. But why was not the call made to embrace all soldiers, as was ours? The answer is easily given. Had such a call been issued, everywhere, the Clymerites would have been routed "horse, foot and dragoon" in every county of the State, Geary delegates selected, and the leader of the fight at Lookout Mountain would have been the nominee of a Soldiers' State Convention, held under Democratic auspices. Who so blind as not to see a "packed convention" in this one?

A Significant Fact.

Following closely upon the heels of the surrender of Lee's army at Appamattox Court House, nearly every prominent traitor in the South sought to get out of the country as quickly as possible. Some of these went to South America, others went to Mexico, and still others of them took up abodes in Canada and England. They knew that they had committed a terrible crime; and, consequently, to save their necks, they chose to flee the country. But how is it now? After staying awhile in South America, bobnobbing a few months in Mexico, and rusticating a short time in Canada and England, they have returned to their old homes in this country, and insolently assume to dictate the terms of their own restoration to citizenship! The cause of this change of programme on their part is readily seen. When they left the country, its policy was to punish traitors and to make treason odious. This order of things being reversed by the present President, in patting traitors on the back and giving them comfortable offices, thus making their crime respectable, they would have been foolish, indeed, to have stayed away one day longer than they did.

The rebels themselves, then, being the judges, no sensible man can claim that Johnson's policy is the same as Lincoln's; or that the former, in a reconstruction sense, is following in the footsteps of the latter.

IT is just ascertained that the defalcations of A. P. Stone, Internal Revenue Collector at Columbus, Ohio, who committed suicide a few months ago, amounts to $102,400.—Local

When the Local can prove to our satisfaction that A. P. Stone ever held the office of Internal Revenue Collector at Columbus, Ohio, we will prove to its satisfaction that its figures are far away from the truth

Where Does the Local Stand?

As we always feel willing and are ready to answer any questions of a political character that may be put to us, we take it for granted that the Local is usually in the same mood, and that it will do the same thing.—We therefore insist upon its giving us direct answers upon the following questions, which we will so shape that a simple yea or nay will suffice to give us the necessary information. The proposed amendment to the Constitution contains four sections, and upon these sections separately we wish to know where the Local stands. The first prescribes, substantially,

"That all persons, native or naturalized, white or colored, shall be equal before the law; that is, no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process, &c."

What does the Local say: Yea or nay to this proposition?

The second section specifies

"That all male persons free of crime, over twenty-one years of age, who are not allowed to vote, shall be excluded from the number comprising the basis of representation."

What does the Local say: yea or nay to this measure?

The third section says

"That all persons who prior to the rebellion had taken an oath to support the Constitution, and afterwards participated in the insurrection, shall not be competent to fill any public office"

What does the Local say: yea or nay to this proposition?

The fourth and last one

"Guarantees the payment of the Federal, and bars the assumption of the rebel debt."

What does the Local say: yea or nay on this point?

As the Local no doubt claims that it is neither sailing under false colors nor attempting to mislead its readers, we earnestly ask it to make answer to these interrogatories in a plain, direct, unequivocal manner. These questions imply all that is now before the people on the subject of reconstruction; and if the Local fails to meet them as they present themselves, its editor will be but doing in a political, what his party did in a military sense during the war, to wit: show the white feather.

THE Local, a few days after the Democratic County Convention, in referring to the proceedings, said:

Men who were never known to have acted with the Democratic party before, were present as delegates in the Convention; and among the spectators, who heartily applauded the proceedings and will vote the ticket nominated, were men who but as yesterday stood at the head of the front rank of the Republican party.

Having been absent from the county for some time, and therefore not as well posted in home politics as we desire to be, we respectfully ask the editor of the Local to give us the names of those men "who but as yesterday stood at the head of the front rank of the Republican party," and "applauded the proceedings" of a Democratic Convention held in this place on the 18th of June.

If the Local will do this, we will, in return, endeavor to show that all Republicans who "applauded" in the Democratic Convention, had either themselves, or their friends, been candidates recently in the Union party for nominations; and not being successful in getting what they wanted in our ranks, went over to the enemy to try their luck there. If we can show this, we apprehend principles had a great deal to do with their being found in a Democratic Convention and "applauding its proceedings"!—At all events we beg the Local to give us the names, so that we too may learn "who but as yesterday stood at the head of the front rank of the Republican party" in this county. We want to know.

Gov. Dennison Resigns.

Hon. William Dennison, the Postmaster General, has resigned his position, on political grounds. It is said that Secretary Harlan, Secretary Stanton, and Attorney General Speed, are all on the eve of doing the same thing, and for the same cause. In one aspect of the case, Gov. Dennison's resignation is a public calamity; for no man ever filled the position with more honor to himself and service to the country. In another sense it was fitting that he should withdraw from an Administration whose head was conniving with traitors to make loyalty odious and treason respectable. Ex-Gov. Randall, the Assistant Postmaster General has been nominated to the Senate for the vacant place.

P. S. Later news brings us the resignation of Attorney General Speed. Henry Stansbury will be nominated in his place.

Nebraska U. S. Senators.

The Legislature of Nebraska, on the 11th inst., elected Major General John M. Thayer and F. W. Tipton to the United States Senate. Both of these gentlemen are Union men—belong to the Union Republican party, and, in addition, are represented as men of marked ability.

THE Local has been bragging and bantering quite vociferously for the past few few weeks, and alleging all the while that the "true soldiers of this county were Democrats, and that they were going to vote the Democratic ticket at the October election." "We couldn't see it in that light," and accordingly, after making death and wounds in battle the standard of true soldierly qualities, we proposed that for every three that the Local would publish, that were either killed or wounded in battle, from this county, who had voted or would vote the Democratic ticket, we would "publish the names of FIVE such, who never did, who do not now, and probably never will act with or belong to that party." To this proposition the Local made this reply:

Such a publication would make a fine army record for the new editor's party. Gloating over the casualties of Democratic soldiers and the consequent enhancement of the strength of an opposing political party, is a subject we had hoped never to see made the foundation for a newspaper article. What next, Mr. Argus?

Nothing; unless it be to say that in all our newspaper experience, we never saw a more complete surrender of a position vaultingly assumed, than this one of the Local's; and we therefore ask its editor, short and decisive as the "tussel" was, to credit us with at least two marks in the game of "trip up" which he is playing with us.

As the Local of last week declined to accept our challenge to publish the names of the "true soldiers" of Beaver county, and their respective political affinities, we this week baited it to try its hand on such soldiers of the county as manifestly had "no stomach for the fight." Our proposition, hence, is this: For every two deserters from the service, or for every two that sneaked away while a draft was pending, who belonged to this county, and to the Union party, published by the Local, we hold ourself in readines to publish the names of FIVE such who are known as Democrats, and who generally voted that ticket. Now here is another opportunity for a "trip up," and we cordially invite the Local to "sail in."

"Carried off the Palm."

Last week we inquired of the Local what Senator, Representative, member of Legislature or private individual of the "dominant party" it was that ever asserted that "negro soldiers carried off the palm. The Local replies by saying that Ben Butler, Chas. Sumner, Thad Stevens, the New York Tribune, the Chicago Republican, and Pittsburg Gazette, all have said so. Now we deny that all of them, or any of them, have said any such thing, and we challenge the Local to point out the particular speech, or precise editorial, in which such a sentence occurs. We want to see it; we do.

HARRISBURG, July 13th, 1866.

Mr. Weyand: I am pleased to find you again at your old post. Never was the need of true men in all positions greater than at present. We can rely on the "boys in blue" though prating politicians may go where "thrift may follow." Let them go. The masses are true and faithful to the great cause of human rights. They will again save our country.

Those engaged in the treasonable effort to transfer our Government to the rebels, have intimated their plan of operations. Wherever they can get a tool to use, they will run him against the regular Union candidate for Congress.

In Philadelphia two or three, perhaps more, of the Union candidates are thus to be defeated if possible.

Thos. E. Franklin is named as the one to run against Stevens; Mackey against Wilson; Leasure against Lawrence. The same game is to be tried with the State Legislature. Nor is your little county forgotten or overlooked. It is, with all other Union counties, to be operated on by the Johnsonites.

The campaign for this purpose, I think, has already commenced. The recent raid in to your county was not an accidental affair. It was part of the system. The programe is not yet played out. If you should deem it of sufficient importance to notice future attempts in the same line, you will be convinced, I think, that other heads and other purses than Johnson's or Cowan's are at work.

Great anxiety is manifested by a few professed Union men to have your candidate for the House defeated. If money or missionaries can effect that object, both will be forthcoming.

Some rich men aspire to positions which would not otherwise be connected with their names. Having tried the use of money with more or less success, the habit of using it grows stronger by repetition, till often all sense of propriety seems lost.

You would do well to watch all attacks which may be made on your gallant little county. She has a name for patriotism of which she may well be proud.

But, perhaps, the poor success of the first raid may induce the plotters to refrain and use their money and missionaries elsewhere.

The weather for the past few days has been excessively hot, and the roads and streets are consquently becoming very dusty.

Medical.

The Beaver County Medical Society held its regular quarterly meeting at the Doncaster House, in Rochester, on Thursday, 12th inst. S. M. Ross, M. D., in the chair, and G. W. Langfitt, M. D., Secretary, pro. tem.

Members present—Drs. S. M. Ross, B. Feicht, L. Linnibrink, P. M. Kerr, D. Stanton, J. M. Cummins, A. C. Barlow, W. J. Langfitt, O. Cunningham, J. Elliott, —— Morrow, D. S. Marquis, G. W. Langfitt, G. Y. Boal and J. E. Jackson.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, after which the several committees were called upon to report. The board of censors reported that Drs. Elliott and Monroe had presented themselves for admission, and were examined by Drs. Marquis, Barlow and Linninbrink, and passed recommended for membership. Dr. Boal was also before the board; but owing to the want of conformity in a single point to the first section of the by-laws, could not be fully admitted; but the censors regarding him as worthy, was on their recommendation unanimously admitted to the meetings and benefits of the Society until he would have an opportunity to remove the disability.

Dr. P. M. Kerr, whose name at a previous meeting had been stricken out for non attendance, appeared before the Society and gave reasons for his absence that were entirely satisfactory, and was therefore by a unanimous and very cordial vote restored again to membership.

A matter of impeachment having been for some time pending in the Society against Dr. S. S. Winans, for contravening the second section, first paragraph of the by laws, the charges remaining unanswered, and failing to give satisfaction at the proper time, was expelled by a vote of the Society.

The report of cases being next in order, Dr. W. J. Langfitt reported an extreme case of Pneumonia and treatment—recovered.

Dr. Stanton reported two cases—one very interesting case of Pneumatosis, arising from contal injury—fatal; the other a dislocation of the thigh joint, which he reduced by Reid's plan. Dr. Ross reported a very difficult dislocation of the thigh joint, which was successfully reduced by Smith's plan of manipulating.

Dr. Linninbrink reported an urgent case of Rheumatism and treatment in full—recovered. The report of these cases elicited lengthy and interesting discussions, especially on dislocations of the large joints, nearly all the members participating.

The etiology, pathology and treatment of epidemic cholera being next in order, Dr Marquis, by appointment of the chair, opened the discussion, which was continued until the hour of adjournment, and was both interesting and profitable, eliciting many important ideas connected with the treatment of this much dreaded disease. All the members not having an opportunity to speak, the subject was continued to the next meeting. The next disease that will come before the Society as a subject for discussion will be that of Dysentery. Dr. D M'Kinney was continued regular Essayist for the next quarterly meeting, and Dr. A. C. Barlow alternate.

On motion a vote of thanks was tendered to the proprietor of the Doncaster House for the excellent manner in which he entertained the Society. After the transaction of some further business, the Society adjourned to meet at the same place on the second Thursday of August, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Political Correspondence

The following correspondence has just been promulgated:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11th, 1866.

SIR:—I have the honor to tender you herewith my resignation of the office of Postmaster General, to take effect upon your notifying me of its acceptance. In thus withdrawing from your Cabinet, it is proper to say that I do so chiefly because of the difference of opinion between us in regard to the proposed amendment of the Constitution, which I approve, and the movement for the Convention to be held at Philadelphia on the fourteenth proximo, to which I am opposed. My confidence in the patriotism of the Union Republican party, and conviction that upon its control of the Government depend in a large measure the happiness of the country, will not permit of my holding an equivocal attitude in regard to it.

Assuring you of my personal regard and appreciation of the uniform courtesy I have received from you, I am, very respectfully yours, ect.,

(Signed) W. DENNISON.

To the President.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14, 1866.

SIR:—Your resignation of the office of Postmaster General, tendered in your letter of the eleventh inst. is duly accepted.

Fully appreciating your kind assurance of personal regard, I am, very truly and respectfully yours,

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Freedman's Bureau Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 16, 1866.

The President sent his message vetoing the Freedman's Bureau bill to Congress to-day at two o'clock. At five o'clock it had passed both houses by more than a two-third vote, and thus became the law of the land. There was no debate in the House and but little in the Senate, where it was confined to Senators Saulsbury, Hendricks and Johnson. In the House three Republicans, Raymond, of New York, Kuykendall, of Illinois, and Washburne, of Indiana, voted to sustain the veto. In the Senate Van Winkle voted with the Democrats.

LINDSLEY, the preacher who whipped his child to death, has escaped from jail and gone to Canada.

The Proposed Clymer-Soldiers' Convention.

We noticed in the Post of July 10th, a call for a State Convention of honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of Pennsylvania—to be held at Harrisburg on the 1st day of August. Who may be the prime movers in this affair, we know not and care as little. But it is a singular fact that a call for a convention, professedly, originated to represent such a large body of honorable and influential citizens of this Commonwealth, should have appended such a very large majority of signers, who are of little or no consideration either in military, political or social life. Its avowed object is to meet and adopt resolutions (to be endorsed by the so-thinking military) supporting HEISTER CLYMER, democratic candidate for Governor of this State. We have no objections to this call for a Convention. But why is it that none of our renowned military leaders, from this State—and we have many of them—have signed it? There is not the name of one Major General to the call, not one Brigadier General, and but five Brevets; but there are forty-one sergeants and corporals and one hundred and eleven privates; whether even these have honorably served in the army we have not the records to show. We cast a hasty glance at the call and by reference to the Adjutant General's Report are able to inform the public, as to whether these men are properly to be called the fighting representatives of our grand old army. The following are some of the officers whose records we examined:

Captain T. McDonough, (marked Geary's old regiment) in service from July 4th, 1861. to November, 1861,

Lieutenant Alfred Robertson, (marked same) in service from July 28th, 1861, to February, 1862.

Col. W. W. Corbet, in service from July to October, 1861—two months.

Captain R. C. Johnston, in service from October, 1861, to July, 1862—ten months.

Lieutenant Augustus F. Bartlow, resigned August, 11th, 1861.

Captain David V. Feaster, in service from April, 1861, to October, 1862—resigned.

Francis R. Genger served (with distinction) as hospital steward awhile.

A. N. Light, went into the army in 1864 as assistant surgeon.

Captain W. W. Murray, mustered out of the service in 1862.

Colonel John B. Emblish, not on record, but commanded hundred day men.

Second Lieutenant N. D. Bennett, in service from November, 1862, to April, 1863—six months—resigned.

Major James B. Treadwel, (published Frewell) in service from June, 1862, to September, 1862.

Major S. C. Simonton, discharged from the service in June, 1863, after serving seven months.

Lieutenant McLean Thorn, in service from August 20, 1862, to September, 1863—resigned

Lieutenant Colonel B. McDermit, resigned in January, 1863—was not in the service one year.

Major R. E. Taylor, resigned in July, 1862—was in service ten months.

Adjutant W. H. Powers, service from August, 1861, to July, 1862.

Captain W. Aughinbaugh, discharged from the service in July, 1862.

Major James Ellis, can't be found in reports, (must be a Revolutionary hero.)

Colonel Joseph Jack, drafted man.

Captain Lewis A. Johnston, in service from September, 1862, to September, 1863.

Lieutenant Archibald Douglass, in service from September, 1862, to January, 1863—three and a half months.

We are sorry we had not time to run through the whole list, but we think enough has been seen to show of what military material the Convention will be composed.—Pitts Gazette.

Divorce Granted.—The Court, at its late session, granted a divorce to Mrs. Amanda M. Moore, from her husband, Charles A. Moore.

Committee Appointed.—At the Adjourned Court held in this place last week, S. B. Wilson, E. B. Daugherty and Saml. Magaw, Esqs., were appointed a Committee to examine Mr. J. H. Veon, on the principles and practice of law, preparatory to his admission to the Bar.

Soldiers' Monument at Sewickly.—On Thursday last the patriotic people of Sewickley, Allegheny county, raised a monument to the memory of the Soldiers of that locality, who fell in battle, or died from either wounds or disease contracted while in the service.—A Eulogy over the heroic dead was pronounced by J. W. F. White, Esq., which is said to have been a fine effort.

Another Mowing Match.—Another mowing match came off at Zelienople, on Tuesday, the 10th inst., between the "Excelsior," the "Ætna" and the "Buckeye, Jr." The majority of the committee before whom the trial was made, declared in favor of the "Buckeye, Jr." as possessing the most merits. The trial took place on the farm of Esq. Zeigler, about three-fourths of a mile from the town.

Temperance Pic-Nic.—The Good Templars of Bridgewater and Rochester had a pic-nic on Thursday last, which is said to have been a very pleasant affair. The party left Beaver station on the train from New Castle, and proceeded to the station on this side of Economy, (Logan) where they found a fine grove, good cool water, and these, with the fine "fixens" they had with them, enabled the party to enjoy themselves "hugely." There were quite a large number of persons at it.

Slippery Rock Oil News.—A gentleman from this vicinity, who spent a day or two last week in Slippery Rock, informs us that the Fisher well, on Armstrong Run, had for some time past had their tools fast. The Lawrence well, on Slippery Rock, is pumping about 120 barrels of oil and water per day—the larger part oil. A fine show of oil was obtained about 80 yards below the Lawrence well last week, and the proprietors think they have a "good thing." The Reed well had also a fine show of oil on Thursday last, and the company are now engaged in tubing it. Our informant says that he counted 17 wells in process of going down in that vicinity, and thinks there were others that he did not see.

The Leading Instrument.—The Instrument known as the Cabinet Organ is quite as great an improvement upon the melodeon, introduced some twenty years ago, or its successor, the harmonium, as a concert grand-piano-forte of to-day is over the imperfect pianos in vogue a quarter of a century since. The melodeon lost favor from a lack of capacity for expression. Its music was monotonous to a degree annoying to cultivated ears. The harmonium was an improvement upon the melodeon, but still failed to satisfy to the extent demanded by its use in chapels, school rooms, or halls, as a support to choral singing. Within a couple of years, Messrs. Mason & Hamlin, who have always taken the lead in this country as manufacturers of reed instruments, have succeeded in largely overcoming the defects noticed in instruments of this class.—New York World.

See advertisment in another column.

Local Improvements.—There are perhaps but few counties in Western Pennsylvania that have within the last few years added more in the way of substantial wealth than Beaver county has done. Particularly is this true in the towns on and about the mouth of the Beaver. New Brighton, Old Brighton, Fallston, Sharon, Bridgewater, Rochester, Phillipsburg, Freedom and Beaver are all "stirring up," and buildings of all sizes and forms, either newly constructed or remodeled and repaired, are vigorously on the move and hurrying forward to completion.

We have taken some pains to ascertain the extent of the improvements in Beaver borough the present season, and here is the result of our investigation:

J. N. Atkins has built a substantial frame dwelling on 4th street.

George Elliott is building a large brick dwelling in the eastern end of the town.

Drs. M'Kinney and Feicht have made extensive permanent changes on their buildings on 3 street.

The "old Argus building" has been remodeled.

Dr. M. Donahoo, on south side of Diamond, is putting up a large addition to his residence.

Hugh Anderson is erecting a first class brick dwelling on N. W. corner of Diamond

Mr. Anderson is about commencing to erect a brick dwelling in western part of town.

R. Kuhn, Esq., and William Myers are also about to break ground preparatory to erecting brick buildings in the same quarter of the borough.

Rev. D. P. Lowary is putting up a large frame dwelling house, on 2d street, near the Academy.

The M. E. Parsonage, on same street, a substantial frame structure, is progressing finely.

S. J. Small, on same street, frame dwelling; rather, however, but a prelude to the erection of a larger and more costly building.

J. F. Dravo, Esq., of Pittsburg, who recently purchased the handsome dwelling erected by Mr. D. Shumaker, on the river bank, is putting up additional buildings.

Mr. Jos. Anderson has made some marked improvements upon his property on the river bank.

Mr. Wm. Garsides has almost completed a spacious frame dwelling in the northern part of the borough.

Marcius Harton is pushing forward to completion a comfortable dwelling in the same part of the town.

Mr. Richard Brown, nearly opposite Mr. Harton, has been adding a number of improvements to the premises upon which he lately erected a dwelling.

Mr. Thomas M'Creery has cleared away the rubbish, and has the timber at hand to put up buildings in lieu of those recently burned down.

George W. Hamilton has made many noticeable improvements upon the dwelling in which the Revenue office is located.

Mr. David Minis has a portion of the lumber now on the ground, and is about to commence the erection of one or more buildings on the lot owned by him, on the corner of Third and Elk streets.

Mr. Henry Mertz, on Third street, has added much to the value of his house and shop by recent improvements.

Mr. David Shumaker has made so many radical changes on "Hemphill Row," that the "oldest inhabitant" would scarcely recognize it.

Mrs. Lyon and daughters have erected a very handsome frame dwelling on the east side of Elk street, and near the Seminary building.

Mr. M'Kinley has improved the "Shannon corner" wonderfully; and, judging from the clatter of the carpenters' tools, we infer that he is not disposed yet awhile to cease from his labors.

Mr. Wm. Barclay, on the corner of Fourth and Market street, is also about commencing to make improvements on his brick dwelling house.

Mr. Aaron Moore has also contracted with the Agricultural Society for the erection of a dwelling house on the Fair Grounds. This building, we believe, is to be of stone, two stories high and work upon it is about commencing.

Mr. John Hall is now engaged in overhauling his dwelling, and contemplates making extensive changes in its appearance.

In this connection we may also say that the Town Council has been remarkably active during the present season in the way of planting shade trees, making side-walks, and in renovating things generally.

A Daring Attempt to Break Jail.—On last Saturday night a bold attempt to break out of jail occurred in this place. The particulars are substantially these: At about half-past ten o'clock on Saturday night, Sheriff Ledlie, who had not yet retired to bed, thought he heard a noise as if some one was digging in or about the building. Satisfying himself that this was the case, he waked up one of his subordinates, and proceeded to the rear of the cell from which the sound came. From here he could see that the cell in which a prisoner named Ferguson was confined was lit up, and that he was evidently trying to dig his way out. Hence the Sheriff procured a light, went to Ferguson's cell, and ascertained that he had almost succeeded in getting a hole in the wall large enough to permit him to pass through. On being questioned closely, he admitted that the project was set on foot solely in the interest of Lennox, of Washington county, who is at present confined here on a charge of murder. The plan was for Ferguson to release himself from his own cell by means of tools no doubt furnished by the friends of Lennox, after which, having a duplicate key of Lennox's cell, (also, we presume, furnished by Lennox's friends) it was to be unlocked by Ferguson, which would bring them both into the jail hall. From the hall their purpose was to cut a hole through the wall into the pantry, from the pantry to get into the dwelling part of the building, and out through the front door. But luckily the noise they made detected them, and consequently Ferguson was at once removed to another locality, and additional safeguards have since been thrown around both of them. In the collar of Lennox's coat was found a coal chisel some six inches in length, besides another piece of steel of about the same size. Had the attempt succeeded, Ferguson would have undoubtedly escaped also; but he was evidently trying more to subserve Lennox's interests than he was his own. Ferguson in addition stated that a horse was in waiting for Lennox at Smith's Ferry, manifestly showing that the attempt to escape was preconceived and pre-arranged.

A Faithful Subscriber.—The Pittsburgh Gazette, says it has a subscriber, who has taken that paper for the last eighty years. The Harrisburg Telegraph in referring to the matter says:

He has a certainty of going to heaven, as he has always paid his subscription. We have a number of subscribers who have taken, and paid for, the Telegraph since its birth, and they will no doubt meet the eighty year veteran of Pittsburg in the next world, if they have not in this. We have also some subscribers who will never reach heaven unless they "square up their old scores."

Soldiers' Orphans.—As the orphan children of those who fell in the late war are objects of general solicitude everywhere, we this week publish the names with the residences, originally, of such of these, from this county, who have been generously taken charge of by the State, for the purpose of educating and maintaining them until their arrival at the age of 16 years:

Sharon—Alice, Eleanora, Isabella, and Francis Marion, children of Thomas Scott Wray, dec'd.

Industry—Samuel, Abbey Elizabeth, Thomas Francis, and John Marion, children of George M. Hoyt, dec'd.; Samuel and Joseph A., children of Eli Watson, dec'd.

North Sewickly—Daniel A., Rosie B. E., and Carrie Emma, children of James H. Cole, dec'd; Isabella, Rebecca, and Christena, children of John Reed, dec'd.

New Sewickly—Asseneeth Jane, Martha Ann, Sarah J. and Mary Elizabeth, children of Alex. Prentice, dec'd.; Nancy and Mary, children of John Steel, dec'd.

Bridgewater—Jas. R. and Delphine, children of Wm. Olcott, dec'd.

Fallston—Mary M., William and Samuel James, children of John Murphy, dec'd.

Rochester—Mary H., Melissa J. and Monroe M., children of George M. Delo, dec'd.; Emma Leonora and Mary Ellen, children of Robt. Purvis, dec'd.; Norman Dixon, child of Edward Green, dec'd.

New Brighton—Sarah Matilda, Alice D. and Eugenie M., children of Eugene K. Fleeson, dec'd.; Laura and Margaret A., children of Wm. T. Shaffer, dec'd.

Big Beaver—Mary E. and Amy S., children of Amos Bitner, dec'd

Moon—Mary J., Laura, Robert and John, children of And'w. Temple, dec'd.

Hookstown—Allen E., child of Gabriel Miller, dec'd.

Those over six years of age are sent to schools such as those at North Sewickly and Phillipsburg, in this county. Those under six are kindly and tenderly cared for at the Orphan Asylum, in Allegheny City, until they arrive at a suitable age, and have made sufficient advancement in education to take their places at the regularly established schools.

The Committee appointed, and having a general oversight of these children, for this county, is as follows: M. Weyand, Chairman, J. C. Wilson, Miss M. J. Anderson, Mrs Wm Orr, and Mrs. Sarah Minis—through whom all applications for admission have and must be made.

Taking Time by the Forelock.—It is said, on what seems good authority, that the delegates to the Clymer Soldier State Convention from this county, have been already selected. They are said to be as follows: J. H. Odell, —— Taylor, (Mr. Odell's chum) Thomas Clark, T. M. Anderson, —— Flannigan, James Conway and —— Boggs. How or by whom these delegates were selected, this deponent saith not; but we presume if there are any other Clymer soldiers in the county besides those here enumerated, they might as well save their time and money by staying at home on the 25th of July, for the thing is already "did"—the delegates have been chosen by a private caucus, and they are only invited here to ratify what has already been done.

Heard of His Mare.—We mentioned last week that Dr. M'Kinney, of this place, had a mare stolen from a pasture lot below town, some ten days or two weeks ago. On Sunday last she was seen in possession of a colored person, some two miles beyond Rochester. The person referred to was riding one animal and leading the Dr.'s mare. Near the place where he was seen, it was ascertained that he had gone to a wheat field and fed his beasts. Seeing a citizen of that locality, he proposed selling the Dr.'s mare, but the person to whom the offer was made declined purchasing and came to town to arrange matters for his arrest; but on returning neither colored man nor horses could be found. A vigorous pursuit is however still kept up, and it is to be hoped that the thief will yet be captured.

Another Mowing Match.—We are requested by A. B. Wolf, Esq., of Brighton township, to say that as Mr. J. R. Hays claims to have been the winner at the recent mowing match on the farm of Mr. Eakin, and as he has bantered Mr. Wolf and all others for a second match, the latter accepts the challenge, and desires the trial to be made on or about the 25th of July. The meadow to be selected by the parties between now and the above specified time. Mr. Hays will therefore please take notice, and assist in arranging the details.

Truth in a Small Compass.—The present platforms of the two parties are given in a nut shell, as follows:

Union Platform—Loyal men shall control the Government.

Democratic Platform—Restore rebels to power and give them the control of our National affairs.

Adjourned Court.—An Adjourned Court was held in this place on Thursday of last week. Hon. L. L. McGuffin presided in place of Judge Chamberlin. The following is a brief summary of the proceedings:

Commonwealth vs. Henry S. Johnston, Appeal; argued by Wray for Commonwealth, and Daugherty for Defendant.

M. Gilliland's Adm'rs. vs. Robert Houston and wife. Exceptions to confirmation of Sheriff's inquisition. Argued by Wray for Plaintiff, and Wilson for Defendant. The Court set aside the levy and proceedings.

Wm. Brooks vs. Josiah Patterson, et al. Exceptions to award of Arbitrators on part of Defendants. Argued by Morlan for Plaintiff, and Wray for Defendants.

Exceptions to report of Auditor of the account of Jesse and Agnes Carothers, Adm'rs of the estate of Hon. John Carothers, who was Adm'r. of the estate of James Carothers, dec'd. Argued by Wilson for exceptants, and Hice for confirmation. Submitted to the Court.

Exceptions to confirmation of orphans' court sale of real estate of Matthew Elder, dec'd. Argued by Esq'rs. Fetterman, Wilson and Hice. Sale set aside by the Court.

Exceptions to confirmation of report to vacate a road in Hanover township. Argued by Young for exceptants, and by Hice for confirmation. Exceptions overruled, and the report of the viewers was confirmed by the Court.

The One Hundred and Fortieth.—From the Philadelphia Press, we see that the Color Guard of the one Hundred and Fortieth Pa. regiment received no little attention while at Philadelphia on the 4th of July. Sergeant Robert Dickey and Sergeant Robert Anderson, were the members of the Guard from this county. The Press says:

"The color guard of the 140th called at the Press office last evening and desired this paper to tender their heartfelt thanks to the Neptune Hose Company of Philadelphia. The guard arrived in this city on Monday, and were received as the guests of the Neptune, who quartered them at the Montgomery House, where they were entertained to the order of the company. The guard will leave for their respective homes to-day, taking with them the most profound feelings of respect and friendship, which they entertain for the Neptune Hose Company in particular and the fire department in general.

☞ If the weather continues favorable, berries and summer fruits will soon be abundant in market. Fruit cans and sugar will then be in demand, and especially sugar for making Wine and Jelly. We advise our readers to buy what sugar they will need during the season of Stiles & Shallenberger, Bridgewater. They will get a good article and save money by doing so. They have just received from the East, Twenty barrels of the different grades of Brown and Refined Sugars, and their prices cannot fail to give satisfaction.

Committed to Jail.—On Sunday evening last Charles Miller and Geo Oswalt, alias George Watkins, were lodged in Jail in this county, on commitment of Justice Cooper, of Industry township. The crime charged to them is that of breaking into the house of Mr. James Campbell, of that township.

Campaigns of the ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

BY WILLIAM SWINTON.

The standard history of the Grand army.

The Greatest Work of the War.

Universally endorsed by army officers and the press. The Author says:—

"I design in this volume to record what that Army did and suffered in ten campaigns and two score battles."

"I shall have to celebrate the unswerving loyalty of this army, that oftimes when the bond of military cohesion failed, held it, unshaken of fortune, to a duty self-imposed."

"I shall have to follow it through a checkered experience, in a tale commingled of great misfortunes, great follies and great glories; but from first to last it will appear that, amid many buffets of fortune, through "winter and rough weather," the Army of the Potomac never gave up, but made a good fight, and finally reached the goal."

The Army and Navy Journal says:—

This is the only American critical work on the late war, and it is thoroughly critical and entirely divested of all political hue or tone."

This is the only History of the "Grand Army," and no one who has borne a part in its conflicts, or is interested in its grand achievements, should be without it.

This work sells itself. The people are tired of political and partisan histories, and want something from official sources. We have Agents clearing over $200 per month. Send for circulars; and see our terms and proof of the above assertion. Address

"Use the Best!"

DR. CLOCK'S

EXCELSIOR HAIR RESTORER IS THE best ever offered to the public and the only one possessing all the merits claimed for it. It restores gray hair to its original color, causes hair grow on bald heads when falling off from disease; removes Scruff, Dandruff, etc.; arrests its falling off or turning gray; cures sick headache and all diseases of the scalp; causes harsh, wiry hair to become soft, pliable and luxuriantly glossy. It is elegantly perfumed, and all that can be desired for a dressing. It contains no sugar of lead or other mineral so injurious to the head and hair, and of which many preparations now in use are composed, but is a purely vegetable compound. WE CHALLENGE the WORLD to produce an instance where the restorer has failed when used according to directions. Among the thousands who have used it we have yet to learn of one who is not perfectly satisfied with its results. Hair whitened by age is with marvelous rapidity restored to all its pristine beauty by its use. It is not a dye, but by supplying the secretions of the capillary glands acts as a restorer. Mothers, whose children's hair is harsh, wiry, or thin and scanty, will find by using the Restorer it will immediately improve and may be dressed in any desired form, thus laying the foundation for a good head of hair, so desirable in after life. The proprietor is aware of the many who have been disappointed by the high sounding pretense of the numerous preparations with which the market has been filled for a few years past, but such entire confidence does take place in the merits of his Restorer that he offers, in all cases, to refund the money if, after a thorough trial of two bottles, it fails to give perfect satisfaction. A single trial will convince the most skeptical of its merits. Put up in large bottles and sold by all druggists at $1 pr bottle

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

Dr. Duponco's

Golden Periodical Pills,

FOR FEMALES.

Infallible in Correcting Irregularities, Removing Obstructions of the Monthly Turns, from Whatever Cause, and ALWAYS SUCCESSFUL AS A PREVENTIVE.

It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were first discovered by Dr. DUPONCO, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions, as well as in private practice, of both hemispheres, with unparalleled success in every case, and it is only at the "urgent request" of the thousands of Ladies who have used them, that he is induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any Irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family, where health will not permit it. Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, as the proprietor assumes no responsibilities after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health, otherwise the Pills are recommended.

Price $1,00 per Box. Six Boxes $5,00.

Sold by S. Smith, Bridgewater, Noble & Hamilton, Beaver, S. Hannen, Rochester.

Ladies! By sending $1,00 to either of the above agents, can have the pills sent (confidentially) by mail, to any part of the country, or address the Proprietor.
